

AS GAZA STARVES, IT'S TIME TO...

BOYCOTT
ISRAELI GOODS!

The international boycott campaign is an effective non-violent way to support the rights of Palestinians

This time last year Israeli warplanes, tanks and missiles struck at Gaza, killing over 1,400 people, including hundreds of children, destroying schools and hospitals and thousands of homes. A year later the Israeli blockade of Gaza continues - Palestinians have been unable to rebuild their homes or rebuild their lives. They need our help; they have asked us to stop buying Israeli goods until Israel ends its occupation, respects human rights and obeys international law.

BOYCOTT ISRAELI GOODS

Dead Sea Spa (trading out of Debenhams) & other items sold as Dead Sea Beauty Products can be found at Israeli-owned stalls in many shopping centres.

Other Israeli products such as those on the right can be found in many Irish stores like Dunnes, Tesco, M&S, Supervalu, Argos, Atlantic Homecare, Woodies and Debenhams.

What else can we boycott?

Most Irish supermarkets stock Israeli fruit (eg peppers, avocados, grapefruit, figs, passion & sharon fruit), vegetables (eg potatoes) and herbs (eg basil, bill), often grown on land recently stolen from Palestinians. We need to pressure them to stop this. For a large list of Israeli products sold in Ireland, you can visit our website at www.ipsc.ie/boycottmap

What is the boycott?

The boycott of Israeli goods is a peaceful way to get Israel to stop the occupation of Palestine, and obey international law. Palestine is suffering from relentless Israeli attacks and experiencing a humanitarian catastrophe now. As with South African Apartheid, ordinary people have the power to stop injustice. Do your bit. Don't buy or sell Israeli products or services.

HEALTH WARNING: 729 IS THE ISRAELI BARCODE. ISRAELI PRODUCTS HELP FUND THE OPPRESSION AND MURDER OF PALESTINIANS.

Israel is a export orientated economy, and Europe is Israel's largest trading partner, so even the threat of boycott has been effective in getting Israel to rethink its behaviour. More pressure on Israel will alleviate the terrible oppression the Palestinian people suffer.

Who supports the boycott?

171 organisations representing Palestinian civil society have called on people around the world to help them and support the boycott. Many human rights groups and trade unions around the world including Irish unions and ICTU have supported this call for boycott. There is even a growing movement inside Israel called 'Boycott From Within'.

What else can I do?

We want to extend the boycott to all walks of life - cultural, academic and sporting. Additionally, the Irish company CRH is helping to build the illegal Apartheid Wall in Palestine - we need your help to stop them.
